The conditions of admission to the fair and to events are set individually for the individual events and announced on the information pages for the events.

Exhibition stand booking fees

ICADA members receive free stand space and a free stand construction element for announced trade fairs. Only stand individualizations need to be carried out to use the stand. These are offered, ordered by the exhibitor in a form, invoiced and carried out after receipt of payment. The customization fees only apply to one trade fair and are only activated free of charge in one of the following trade fairs, depending on the situation and the trade fair theme.

It is planned to set up a permanent trade fair from the individual trade fairs that have been carried out. The personnel deployment then necessary for visitor communication will be announced in good time. With the first stand order, the stand operator agrees to free stand participation at the following trade fairs (accumulation of stands at an industry trade fair), unless additional costs are announced in advance for subsequent trade fairs and participation is expressly offered.

Subletting and participation in stands

Subletting and participation in stands are not permitted.

Stand construction

Stand construction takes place continuously. It takes place in the order of the incoming payments for the work on the stand customization. Attempts are being
